

2023 Humboldt County Farm Bureau Farm Dog Contest

Frequently Asked Questions

June 1 – June 30, 2023

Am I eligible?

The contest is open to anyone who owns a farm dog and is one of the following:

- an individual member of Humboldt County Farm Bureau in California
- an individual designated by an entity that is a member of Humboldt County Farm Bureau designated to participate individually in the activities and benefits derived from that membership.
- A minor child or ward of either of the above-described individuals.

Can I join Humboldt County Farm Bureau now and be eligible to enter?

YES! Go to our website and join today! www.humboldtcountyfarmbureau.com

What is this all about?

Humboldt County Farm Bureau is using this opportunity to showcase the amazing dogs in Humboldt County that not only work for their kibble, but enrich our lives. The contest is based on submitted photos, videos, and stories depicting the farm dog's role in working alongside Humboldt County farmers and ranchers.

For official rules, see RULES on main website.

How many stories/dogs may I enter?

One dog/story per Farm Bureau member. You may submit up to five photos of the one allowed contestant.

Are there prizes?

Yes! Redwood Capital Bank has generously given us $500 to be awarded to the TOP DOG! Premier Financial is also offering a monetary prize. Rover's Choice has bones for the winners and other local stores have also donated prizes for the winning dogs.

Each entrant is eligible to win only one prize per contest year.

The 2023 Humboldt County Farm Bureau Farm Dog of the Year will be featured on our various social media platforms.
