The Redwood Agricultural Education Foundation (RAEF) supports a wide range of programs focused on education and information for local agricultural producers and youth groups.

These programs are designed to support the future of agriculture through education here on the North Coast.

Programs include scholarships, educational forums, sponsorship of community outreach and educational events for various sectors of agriculture.

The Redwood Agricultural Education Foundation is a local organization, serving our local agricultural producers and supporting our community.

Memorial Contributions For a Loved One

Members of our community can choose to make a lasting commitment to agriculture education by donating to the Redwood Agricultural Education Foundation.

Upon receiving your memorial donation, we will send the family notification that you have donated to the Redwood Agriculture Education Foundation in memory of their loved one.

Please send your contribution to the RAEF at 5601 South Broadway, Eureka, CA 95503 with the name and address of the surviving family so we can send them a special acknowledgement of the gift you donated in the memory of their family member.
